RAJA KANNAN,

Plaintiff,

v.

APPLE INC.,

Case No. 5:17-cv-07305-EJD

STIPULATION AND [PROPOSED]
PROTECTIVE ORDER

Complaint Filed: December 26, 2017
FAC Filed: May 10, 2018
SAC Filed: October 19, 2018

STIPULATION

IT IS HEREBY STIPULATED by and between Plaintiff RAJA KANNAN (“Plaintiff”) on the one hand and Defendant APPLE INC. (“Apple”) on the other, by and through their respective counsel of record, that in order to facilitate the exchange of information and documents which may be subject to confidentiality limitations on disclosure due to federal laws, state laws, and privacy rights, the Parties stipulate as follows:

1. In this Stipulation and Protective Order, the words set forth below shall have the following meanings:

a. “Proceeding” means the above-entitled proceeding (United States District Court, Northern District of California, Case No. 5:17-cv-07305-EJD).

b. “Court” means the United States District Court, Northern District of California, including any judge to which this Proceeding may be assigned, including Court staff participating in such proceedings.

c. “Confidential” means any information (regardless of how it is generated, stored or maintained) or tangible things in the possession of a Designating Party that is privileged, protectable as a trade secret, or otherwise entitled to confidential treatment or protection under applicable law, including but not limited to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(c).

d. “Confidential Materials” means any Documents, Testimony, or Information, as defined below, designated as “Confidential” pursuant to the provisions of this Stipulation and Protective Order.

e. “Designating Party” means the Party that designates Materials as “Confidential.”

f. “Disclose” or “Disclosed” or “Disclosure” means to reveal, divulge, give, or make available Materials, or any part thereof, or any information contained therein.

g. “Documents” means (i) any “Writing,” “Original,” and “Duplicate” as those terms are defined by Federal Rule of Evidence 1001, which have been produced in discovery in this Proceeding by any person, and (ii) any copies, reproductions, or summaries of all or any part of the foregoing.

1 h. “Information” means the content of Documents or Testimony.

2 i. “Testimony” means all depositions, declarations or other testimony taken or 3 used in this Proceeding.

4 j. “Receiving Party” a party that receives Confidential Materials.

5 2. The protections conferred by this Stipulation and Order cover not only Confidential
6 Materials (as defined above), but also (1) any information copied or extracted from Confidential 7 Materials ; (2) all copies, excerpts, summaries, or compilations of Confidential Materials ; and (3) any 8 testimony, conversations, or presentations by Parties or their Counsel that might reveal Confidential 9 Materials. However, the protections conferred by this Stipulation and Order do not cover the following 10 information: (a) any information that is in the public domain at the time of disclosure to a Receiving 11 Party or becomes part of the public domain after its disclosure to a Receiving Party as a result of 12 publication not involving a violation of this Order, including becoming part of the public record
13 through trial or otherwise; and (b) any information known to the Receiving Party prior to the disclosure 14 or obtained by the Receiving Party after the disclosure from a source who obtained the information
15 lawfully and under no obligation of confidentiality to the Designating Party. Any use of Confidential 16 Materials at trial shall be governed by a separate agreement or order.

17 3. The Designating Party shall have the right to designate as “Confidential” any 18 Documents, Testimony, or Information that contains information that is privileged, protectable as a 19 trade secret, or otherwise entitled to confidential treatment or protection under applicable law, 20 including but not limited to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(c).

21 4. The parties acknowledge that this Stipulation and Protective Order does not confer 22 blanket protections on all disclosures or responses to discovery and that the protection it affords from 23 public disclosure and use extends only to the limited information or items that are entitled to 24 confidential treatment under the applicable legal principles. Each Party or non-Party to the 25 Proceedings that designates information or items under this Stipulation and Protective Order must take 26 care to limit any such designation to specific material that qualifies under the appropriate standards.
27 The Designating Party must designate for protection only those parts of Documents, Testimony, or 28 Information that qualify – so that other portions of the Documents, Testimony, or Information for

1 which protection is not warranted are not swept unjustifiably within the ambit of this Stipulation and 2 Protective Order. Mass, indiscriminate, or routinized designations are prohibited. Designations that 3 are shown to be clearly unjustified or that have been made for an improper purpose (e.g., to 4 unnecessarily encumber or retard the case development process or to impose unnecessary expenses
 5 and burdens on other parties) expose the Designating Party to sanctions. If it comes to a Designating 6 Party's attention that information or items that it designated for protection do not qualify for protection
 7 that Designating Party must promptly notify all other Parties that it is withdrawing the mistaken 8 designation.

9 5. The entry of this Stipulation and Protective Order does not alter, waive, modify, or 10 abridge any right, privilege or protection otherwise available to any Party with respect to the discovery 11 of matters, including but not limited to any Party's right to assert the attorney-client privilege, the 12 attorney work product doctrine, or other privileges, or any Party's right to contest any such assertion.

13 6. Any Documents, Testimony, or Information to be designated as "Confidential" must 14 be clearly so designated before the Document, Testimony, or Information is Disclosed or produced, 15 or, for designations made by the Receiving Party, within 30 days of receipt of any Documents, 16 Testimony, or Information. The Parties may agree that the case name and number are to be part of the 17 "Confidential" designation. The "Confidential" designation should not obscure or interfere with the 18 legibility of the designated Information.

19 a. For Documents (apart from transcripts of depositions or other pretrial or trial 20 proceedings), the Designating Party must affix the legend "Confidential" on each page of any 21 Document containing such designated Confidential Material.

22 b. For Testimony given in depositions the Designating Party may either: 23 i. identify on the record, before the close of the deposition, all 24 "Confidential" Testimony, by specifying all portions of the Testimony that qualify as "Confidential;" 25 or 26 ii. designate the entirety of the Testimony at the deposition as 27 "Confidential" (before the deposition is concluded) with the right to identify more specific portions of 28 the Testimony as to which protection is sought within 30 days following receipt of the deposition

1 transcript. In circumstances where portions of the deposition Testimony are designated for protection, 2 the transcript pages containing “Confidential” Information may be separately bound by the court 3 reporter, who must affix to the top of each page the legend “Confidential,” as instructed by the 4 Designating Party.

5 c. For Information produced in some form other than Documents, and for any 6 other tangible items, including, without limitation, compact discs or DVDs, the Designating Party
 7 must affix in a prominent place on the exterior of the container or containers in which the Information 8 or item is stored the legend “Confidential.” If only portions of the Information or item warrant 9 protection, the Designating Party, to the extent practicable, shall identify the “Confidential” portions.

10 7. The inadvertent production by any of the undersigned Parties or non-Parties to the 11 Proceedings of any Document, Testimony, or Information during discovery in this Proceeding without 12 a “Confidential” designation, shall be without prejudice to any claim that such item is “Confidential” 13 and such Party shall not be held to have waived any rights by such inadvertent production. In the 14 event that any Document, Testimony, or Information subject to a “Confidential” designation is 15 inadvertently produced without such designation, the Party that inadvertently produced the document 16 shall give written notice of such inadvertent production within 30 days of discovery of the inadvertent
 17 production, together with a further copy of the subject Document, Testimony, or Information 18 designated as “Confidential” (the “Inadvertent Production Notice”). Upon receipt of such Inadvertent 19 Production Notice, the Party that received the inadvertently produced Document, Testimony, or 20 Information shall, at the expense of the producing Party, promptly return or delete such together with 21 all copies of such Document, Testimony, or Information to counsel for the producing Party and shall 22 retain only the “Confidential” designated Materials. In the event that this provision conflicts with any 23 applicable law regarding waiver of confidentiality through the inadvertent production of Documents, 24 Testimony, or Information, such law shall govern.

25 8. In the event that counsel for a Party receiving Documents, Testimony, or Information 26 in discovery designated as “Confidential” objects to such designation with respect to any or all of such 27 items, said counsel shall advise counsel for the Designating Party, in writing, of such objections, the 28 specific Documents, Testimony, or Information to which each objection pertains, and the specific

1 reasons and support for such objections (the "Designation Objections"). Unless a prompt objection to 2 a Designating Party's confidentiality designation is necessary to avoid foreseeable, substantial 3 unfairness, unnecessary economic burdens, or a significant disruption or delay of the litigation, a Party
 4 does not waive its right to object to a "Confidential" designation by electing not to mount an objection
 5 promptly after the original designation is disclosed. The Parties shall attempt to resolve each 6 Designation Objection in good faith and must begin the process by conferring directly (in voice to 7 voice dialogue; other forms of communication are not sufficient) within 14 days of the date of service 8 of the Designation Objections. In conferring, the Challenging Party must explain the basis for its 9 belief that the "Confidentiality" designation was not proper and must give the Designating Party an 10 opportunity to review the designated Documents, Testimony, or Information, to reconsider the 11 circumstances, and, if no change in designation is offered, to explain the basis for the chosen 12 designation. After engaging in the meet and confer process, counsel for the Designating Party shall 13 have either 21 days from receipt of the written Designation Objections or 14 days from the parties' 14 agreement that the meet and confer process will not resolve their dispute, whichever is later, to either 15 (a) agree in writing to de-designate Documents, Testimony, or Information pursuant to any or all of 16 the Designation Objections and/or (b) file a motion with the Court seeking to uphold any or all 17 designations on Documents, Testimony, or Information addressed by the Designation Objections (the 18 "Designation Motion"). In addition, the Challenging Party may file a motion challenging a 19 confidentiality designation at any time if there is good cause for doing so. Frivolous designation 20 motions or challenges, and those made for an improper purpose (e.g., to harass or impose unnecessary 21 expenses and burdens on other parties) may expose the Party to sanctions. Any motion brought 22 pursuant to this section must be accompanied by a competent declaration affirming that the movant 23 has complied with the meet and confer requirements imposed by this section. Pending a resolution of 24 the Designation Motion by the Court, any and all existing designations on the Documents, Testimony, 25 or Information at issue in such Motion shall remain in place. The Designating Party shall have the 26 burden of persuasion on any Designation or challenge. In the event that the Designation Objections 27 are neither timely agreed to nor timely addressed in the Designation Motion, then such Documents, 28

1 Testimony, or Information shall be de-designated in accordance with the Designation Objection 2 applicable to such material.

3 9. Access to and/or Disclosure of Confidential Materials designated as "Confidential" 4 shall be permitted only to the following persons:

5 a. the Plaintiff, Raja Kannan;
 6 b. the Court;
 7 c. (1) attorneys of record in the Proceedings and their affiliated attorneys, 8 paralegals, clerical and secretarial staff employed by such attorneys who are actively involved in the 9 Proceedings and are not employees of any Party; and (2) in-house counsel to the undersigned Parties 10 and the paralegal, clerical and secretarial staff employed by such counsel. Provided, however, that 11 each non-lawyer given access to Confidential Materials shall be advised that such Materials are being 12 Disclosed pursuant to, and are subject to, the terms of this Stipulation and Protective Order and that 13 they may not be Disclosed other than pursuant to its terms;

14 d. those officers, directors, partners, members, employees and agents of all non-15 Designating Parties that counsel for such Parties deems necessary to aid counsel in the prosecution
 16 and defense of this Proceeding; provided, however, that prior to the Disclosure of Confidential
 17 Materials to any such officer, director, partner, member, employee or agent, counsel for the Party 18 making the Disclosure shall deliver a copy of this Stipulation and Protective Order to such person, 19 shall explain that such person is bound to follow the terms of such Order, and shall secure the signature 20 of such person on a statement in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A;

21 e. court reporters in this Proceeding (whether at depositions, hearings, or any other 22 proceeding);

23 f. any deposition, trial or hearing witness in the Proceeding who previously has 24 had access to the Confidential Materials, or who is currently or was previously an officer, director, 25 partner, member, employee or agent of an entity that has had access to the Confidential Materials;

26 g. any deposition or non-trial hearing witness in the Proceeding to whom it is 27 reasonably necessary to provide access to the Confidential Materials; provided, however, that each 28 such witness given access to Confidential Materials shall be advised that such Materials are being

1 Disclosed pursuant to, and are subject to, the terms of this Stipulation and Protective Order and that
 2 they may not be Disclosed other than pursuant to its terms;

3 h. mock jurors , provided, however, that prior to the Disclosure of Confidential
 4 Materials to any such mock jury participant, counsel for the Party making the Disclosure shall deliver 5 a copy of this Stipulation and Protective Order to such person, shall explain that such person is bound 6 to follow the terms of such Order, and shall secure the signature of such person on a statement in the 7 form attached hereto as Exhibit A.

8 i. outside experts or expert consultants consulted by the undersigned Parties or 9 their counsel in connection with the Proceeding, whether or not retained to testify at any oral hearing;
 10 provided, however, that prior to the Disclosure of Confidential Materials to any such expert or expert 11 consultant, counsel for the Party making the Disclosure shall deliver a copy of this Stipulation and 12 Protective Order to such person, shall explain its terms to such person, and shall secure the signature 13 of such person on a statement in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A; and 14 j. any mediator in the Proceeding whom it is reasonably necessary to provide 15 access to Confidential Materials; provided, however, that each mediator given access to Confidential 16 Materials shall be advised that such Materials are being Disclosed pursuant to, and are subject to, the 17 terms of this Stipulation and Protective Order and that they may not be Disclosed other than pursuant 18 to its terms;

19 k. any other person that the Designating Party agrees to in writing.

20 10. Confidential Materials shall be used by the persons receiving them only for the 21 purposes of preparing for, conducting, participating in the conduct of, and/or prosecuting and/or 22 defending the Proceeding, and not for any business or other purpose whatsoever.

23 11. Any Party to the Proceeding (or other person subject to the terms of this Stipulation 24 and Protective Order) may ask the Court, after appropriate notice to the other Parties to the Proceeding, 25 to modify or grant relief from any provision of this Stipulation and Protective Order.

26 12. Entering into, agreeing to, and/or complying with the terms of this Stipulation and 27 Protective Order shall not:
 28

1 a. operate as an admission by any person that any particular Document, 2 Testimony, or Information marked “Confidential” contains or reflects trade secrets, proprietary, 3 confidential or competitively sensitive business, commercial, financial or personal information; or 4 b. prejudice in any way the right of any Party (or any other person subject to the 5 terms of this Stipulation and Protective Order):

6 i. to seek a determination by the Court of whether any particular 7 Confidential Material should be subject to protection as “Confidential” under the terms of this 8 Stipulation and Protective Order; or 9 ii. to seek relief from the Court on appropriate notice to all other Parties to 10 the Proceeding from any provision(s) of this Stipulation and Protective Order, either generally or as 11 to any particular Document, Material or Information.

12 13. Any Party to the Proceeding who has not executed this Stipulation and Protective Order 13 as of the time it is presented to the Court for signature may thereafter become a Party to this Stipulation 14 and Protective Order by its counsel’s signing and dating a copy thereof and filing the same with the 15 Court, and serving copies of such signed and dated copy upon the other Parties to this Stipulation and 16 Protective Order.

17 14. Any Information that may be produced by a non-Party witness in discovery in the 18 Proceeding pursuant to subpoena or otherwise may be designated by such non-Party as “Confidential” 19 under the terms of this Stipulation and Protective Order, and any such designation by a non-Party shall 20 have the same force and effect, and create the same duties and obligations, as if made by one of the 21 undersigned Parties hereto. Any such designation shall also function as a consent by such producing 22 Party to the authority of the Court in the Proceeding to resolve and conclusively determine any motion
23 or other application made by any person or Party with respect to such designation, or any other matter 24 otherwise arising under this Stipulation and Protective Order.

25 15. If any person subject to this Stipulation and Protective Order who has custody of any 26 Confidential Materials receives a subpoena or other process (“Subpoena”) from any government or 27 other person or entity demanding production of Confidential Materials, the recipient of the Subpoena 28 shall promptly give notice of the same by electronic mail transmission, followed by either express

1 mail or overnight delivery to counsel of record for the Designating Party, and shall furnish such 2 counsel with a copy of the Subpoena. Upon receipt of this notice, the Designating Party may, at its 3 own cost, move to quash or limit the Subpoena, otherwise oppose production of the Confidential 4 Materials, and/or seek to obtain confidential treatment of such Confidential Materials from the 5 subpoenaing person or entity to the fullest extent available under law. The recipient of the Subpoena 6 may not produce any Documents, Testimony, or Information pursuant to the Subpoena prior to the 7 date specified for production on the Subpoena.

8 16. Nothing in this Stipulation and Protective Order shall be construed to preclude either 9 Party from asserting in good faith that certain Confidential Materials require additional protection.
 10 The Parties shall meet and confer to agree upon the terms of such additional protection.

11 17. If, after execution of this Stipulation and Protective Order, any Confidential Materials 12 submitted by a Designating Party under the terms of this Stipulation and Protective Order is Disclosed 13 by a non-Designating Party to any person other than in the manner authorized by this Stipulation and 14 Protective Order, the non-Designating Party responsible for the Disclosure shall bring all pertinent 15 facts relating to the Disclosure of such Confidential Materials to the immediate attention of the 16 Designating Party. Similarly, if a non-Designating Party becomes aware of any person or entity not 17 authorized access to Confidential Materials, accessing or potentially accessing Confidential Materials, 18 the non-Designating Party shall immediately inform the Designated Party of the unauthorized access.

19 18. This Stipulation and Protective Order is entered into without prejudice to the right of 20 any Party to knowingly waive the applicability of this Stipulation and Protective Order to any 21 Confidential Materials designated by that Party. If the Designating Party uses Confidential Materials
 22 in a non-Confidential manner, then the Designating Party shall advise that the designation no longer 23 applies.

24 19. Where any Confidential Materials, or Information derived from Confidential Materials, 25 is included in any motion or other proceeding the Parties shall comply with Civil Local Rule 79-5 26 Filing Documents Under Seal in Civil Cases. Without written permission from the Designating Party 27 or a court order secured after appropriate notice to all interested persons, a receiving Party may not 28 file in the public record in this action any Confidential Material or Information derived from 1 Confidential Materials. The Party seeking to file Confidential Materials in the public record shall 2 comply with the procedures for filing documents under Seal as set forth in Civil Local Rule 79-5.

3 20. The Parties shall meet and confer regarding the procedures for use of Confidential
4 Materials at trial and shall move the Court for entry of an appropriate order.

5 21. Nothing in this Stipulation and Protective Order shall affect the admissibility into 6 evidence of Confidential Materials, or abridge the rights of any person to seek judicial review or to 7 pursue other appropriate judicial action with respect to any ruling made by the Court concerning the 8 issue of the status of Confidential Materials.

9 22. This Stipulation and Protective Order shall continue to be binding after the conclusion 10 of this Proceeding and all subsequent proceedings arising from this Proceeding, except that a Party 11 may seek the written permission of the Designating Party or may move the Court for relief from the 12 provisions of this Stipulation and Protective Order. To the extent permitted by law, the Court shall 13 retain jurisdiction to enforce, modify, or reconsider this Stipulation and Protective Order, even after 14 the Proceeding is terminated.

15 23. Upon written request made within 30 days after the settlement or other termination of 16 the Proceeding, the undersigned Parties shall have 30 days to either (a) promptly return to counsel for 17 each Designating Party all Confidential Materials and all copies thereof (except that counsel for each 18 Party may maintain in its files, in continuing compliance with the terms of this Stipulation and 19 Protective Order, all work product, and one copy of each pleading filed with the Court and one copy 20 of each deposition together with the exhibits marked at the deposition), (b) agree with counsel for the 21 Designating Party upon appropriate methods and certification of destruction or other disposition of 22 such Confidential Materials, or (c) as to any Documents, Testimony, or other Information not 23 addressed by sub-paragraphs (a) and (b), file a motion seeking a Court order regarding proper 24 preservation of such Materials. For the avoidance of doubt, Plaintiff will not be required to return his 25 personal employment records with Apple. To the extent permitted by law the Court shall retain 26 continuing jurisdiction to review and rule upon the motion referred to in sub-paragraph (c) herein.

27 24. After this Stipulation and Protective Order has been signed by counsel for all Parties, 28 it shall be presented to the Court for entry. Counsel agree to be bound by the terms set forth herein

1 with regard to any Confidential Materials that have been produced before the Court signs this 2 Stipulation and Protective Order.

3 25. The Parties and all signatories to the Certification attached hereto as Exhibit A agree 4 to be bound by this Stipulation and Protective Order pending its approval and entry by the Court. In 5 the event that the Court modifies this Stipulation and Protective Order, or in the event that the Court
6 enters a different Protective Order, the Parties agree to be bound by this Stipulation and Protective 7 Order until such time as the Court may enter such a different Order. It is the Parties' intent to be bound 8 by the terms of this Stipulation and Protective Order pending its entry so as to allow for immediate 9 production of Confidential Materials under the terms herein.
